

Closet Space

Written by GDC

Tuesday, 29 March 2011 00:41 -

One of the challenges of any custom home design is space. Everyone wants it, not everyone has it, so how do you make the most of your space? At Georgetown Development , we know all about working with what you have to produce a room that's comfortable with plenty of storage.

Before you start knocking down walls and busting through the next room, take a look at this elegant and more cost-effective ways to create the coveted closet space . By building a closet opening with no doors, you have the flexibility of choosing a closet that not only blends in with your vision, but also can give you back floor space.

To learn more about how Georgetown Development can help you with your next custom home design or room to room renovation, give us a call or check out some of our latest award winning homes at www.georgetowndevcorp.com , and please put the sledge hammer down! We can help.

Happy Building!